Mr. Montague declined an invitation from Wendenburg to deliver addresses at the same time on Saturday night.

Mr. Montague will address the voters to-morrow night at 8 o'clock in the courthouse, under the auspices of the South Richmond Democratic Club.

Unlabeled colored men, known as the "Dark Street Gang," caused Dr. E. L. Phillips, of 702 Dennis Street, to run his automobile over three points of water pipe, which were being laid along the street into a wide ditch, having a narrow escape from death. He suffered a badly sprained ankle, minor bruises, but the other occupants of the car, his wife and a party of young women, were uninjured. Part of the automobile was wrecked.

Dr. Phillips was returning from a party at Hill about 11:15 on Wednesday night, following a street car. When the car turned he did not see the ditch, and several of the front lights being extinguished, and the front of the machine plunged directly into it.

Try Hold-Up Case To-Day.
Joseph Williams, colored, will be arraigned before Justice Maurice today in Police Court for the charge of feloniously assaulting Policeman Michael J. Moore and of shooting Adolphus Thirt, of Oak Grove. Efforts of the police to find the other alleged assailant of Moore have proved unavailing.

The hearing of the suit of Mrs. Fannie C. Farrell against the Virginia Railway and Power Company was continued today in District Court, Part II. Damages in the suit of $12,000 were asked by the defendant for being knocked off a Broad and Main Street car by another passenger while she was alighting from it. According to the declaration, she fell heavily to the pavement and suffered several injuries.

Yesterday was the end of the May term of court. Judge Wells will set the civil docket Monday for the beginning of the June term.

Delegates Return.
William J. Morrisett and E. C. Blake have returned from Norfolk, where they attended the annual national convention of the Patriotic Order, Sons of America. Mr. Morrisett was a delegate from Liberty Council, while Mr. Blake represented the Patriotic Council. The convention was to have been held here, but accommodations could not be secured on account of the visiting Villed Prophets.

Will Hear Assault Case.
Harry Matthews, colored, will be tried to-day before Squire L. W. Cheatham in Chambers on the charge of assaulting Joseph Dandridge, alias "Black Diamond," with a "blackjack." Dandridge is said to have made Matthews' head a target for several well-aimed bricks. The latter resented. Officer Taylor arrested Matthews.

ITCHED SO, HE TORE HIS FLESH RESINOL CURED

Tortured for Three Weeks, but Two Applications Did the Work.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3, 1913: "All over my body were small pimples which itched me so that I could just grab my flesh and tear it apart. For three weeks I could not sleep at night, until I was simply exhausted. I tried most everything that was supposed to give relief, and I can truthfully say that not until I used Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment did I begin to feel like the man I was. After only two applications there were no more symptoms of my ailment." (Signed) A. Jackson, care of Water Registrar's Office, District Building.

Physicians have prescribed Resinol for nineteen years for all sorts of skin troubles, pimples, dandruff, sores, ulcers, burns, wounds, and piles. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, but for trial size, free, write to Dept. 16-B, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Do not be deceived by imitations.—Adv.

PROHIBITION IS LIVELY TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

Precipitation of Issue at This Time
Arouses Keen Interest at Capitol.

EARLY VOTE IS PROBABLE

House Committee Will Consider and Probably Report Favorably Resolution Providing for Special Rule
Early in July.

Washington, June 11.—Despite the fact that the House Rules Committee postponed until July 1 action on a special rule to provide for immediate consideration of Representative Hobson's resolution for national prohibition through an amendment to the Federal Constitution, prohibition continued to-day to be a lively topic of discussion in congressional circles.

Precipitation of the issue at this time has aroused keener interest at the capital than in any other question that has come up there in a long while. While the committee has deferred consideration of the rule, definite assurances have been given by committee members that they would consider and probably favorably report the resolution providing for a special rule in July.

In some quarters, it was asserted that the postponement means that no action would be taken during the present session. It was confidently predicted at the Capitol today, however, that the House would be forced to vote on national prohibition within four or five weeks.

Representative Hobson to-day predicted that his resolution would come before the House on Monday night or Tuesday. In the event the resolution is not passed, he announced that it would be brought up when Congress reconvenes next winter.

Chairman Henry, of the Rules Committee, expects to make a two weeks' visit in Texas. No hearings, it was stated, will be held by the committee on the special rule.

THAW WILL BE ALLOWED TO GO TO PITTSBURGH

His Lawyer Reaches Agreement
With Jerome, Counsel for New York State.

NO CHANGE IN HIS STATUS

While Being Taken From One State to Another, Authorities Will Be Enjoined From Interfering With His Custody.

New York, June 11.—Counsel for Harry K. Thaw and William Travers Jerome, counsel for the State of New York, to-day announced that it had been agreed to allow Thaw, who is now in New Hampshire, to go to Pittsburgh to testify in the matter of his father's estate.

At the same time Merrill Shurtleff, of counsel for Thaw, stated that in consideration of this concession on the part of the State, the application to the United States Supreme Court for Thaw's admission to bail temporarily would be withdrawn.

Thaw's status, said Mr. Jerome, would remain the same. While Thaw is being taken from one State to another, all State authorities will be enjoined from interfering with his custody. A time-limit for his stay in Pittsburgh would probably be specified by the Supreme Court, said Mr. Jerome.

Thaw, as slayer of Stanford White, escaped from the Mattawan Asylum in this State in August, 1913, and fled to Canada. When deported he was arrested in New Hampshire. The Governor of that State granted New York's request for extradition, but the Thaw lawyers blocked this by a Federal writ of habeas corpus, obtained on constitutional grounds. The Federal District Court sustained this writ, and it is now before the United States Supreme Court on appeal.

Thaw Makes No Comment.

Gorham, N. H., June 11.—Harry K. Thaw made no comment to-day when informed of the agreement between William T. Jerome and Thaw's attorneys, under which he will be allowed to go to Pittsburgh to testify.

Thaw, in the custody of Sheriff Drew, of New Hampshire, has been staying at a White Mountain summer home here since leaving Concord a few weeks ago.

STATE'S CRIMINAL LAWS ARE ROUNDLY DENOUNCED

James S. Barron, Norfolk Judge
Declares Them Monstrous in Their Deep Damnation.

MAKES ADDRESS TO ALUMNI

With Awarding of Diplomas to Graduates, President Tyler Declares
Session of 1913-14, at William and Mary, Ended.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Williamsburg, Va., June 11.—The annual celebration of the William and Mary Alumni Association was held in the college chapel last night. Colonel J. V. Bidgood, of Richmond, president, called the meeting to order and presented the Rev. E. H. Jones, rector of Bruton Parish Church, who delivered the invocation. Colonel Bidgood then introduced the orator of the occasion, James S. Barron, Judge of the Police Court of the city of Norfolk. The speaker had selected as his subject "Society—The Criminal." The speaker dealt with the criminal laws of Virginia, which he characterized as "monstrous in their deep damnation." He claimed that they are antiquated and barbarous, and insisted to a progressive age like this, neither reforming nor reclaiming the criminal class. He declared that crime was a disease, and could not be prevented by punishment. The old idea, he said, was that laws were made to protect the weak, but now they are meant to protect the strong. He ridiculed many of the criminal laws on the statute books of Virginia. He closed his address in a vehement denunciation of capital punishment.

At the close of the address a business meeting of the association was held, at which Judge Barron was unanimously elected president of the organization for the ensuing year. Other matters were considered, one of which was raising an endowment fund for the college and the organization of local associations. The alumni adjourned to the library, where an enjoyable informal smoker was held. During the evening short impromptu addresses were made by John Weymouth, of Hampton; Walter Mapp, of Accomac; Judge Barron, of Norfolk, and Howard Bayne, of New York.

To-day was commencement day proper at William and Mary, as it witnessed the awarding of degrees, scholarships, medals, etc., and the exercises closing with the baccalaureate address, delivered in a masterly style by Howard H. Bayne, of Norfolk. The following were awarded the scholarships: Chancellor scholarship, to W. C. Ferguson; Soutter, to Victor G. Emery; Corcoran, to R. H. Gurley; Graves, to J. A. Flock; Phi Beta Kappa, to H. G. Parker. The medal for the best prose contribution to the college history magazine was awarded to O. V. Petty, and for the best poem to R. E. P. Ham.

It was after 1 o'clock when the day's program had been completed, and Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, president, declared the session of 1913-14 at an end. The final ball in the gymnasium to-night closed the social features of the commencement.

A Hint for Coming Maternity

In a little book designed for expectant mothers more complete instruction is given in the use of "Mother's Friend."

This is an external embrocation applied to the abdominal muscles for the purpose of relieving the strain on ligaments, cords and tendons.

It serves to ease the mind, indirectly the nervous system and thousands of women have delightedly told how they were free of nausea, had no morning sickness and went through the ordeal with most remarkable success. "Mother's Friend" has been growing in popular favor for more than forty years. In almost every community are grandmothers who used it themselves, their daughters have used it and they certainly must know what a blessing it is when they recommend it so warmly. It is used very successfully to prevent caking of breasts.

"Mother's Friend" has been prepared in the laboratory of Broadbent, Rogator Co., 304 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for more than two generations and can be had of almost any druggist from coast to coast. Write to-day for the little book.

Painless Dental Work

Our patrons often ask: "How are you able to charge low prices for such beautiful dental work?" The answer is: There is a large profit in dental work, and partly because we prefer a large practice at small prices to a small practice at large prices, and partly because the combination of several men in one office minimizes expense. Also, by supplying our different offices we buy an immense lot of teeth, gold and other dental supplies, thereby saving a large discount. Therefore we can, by doing dental operations PAINLESSLY and in less time, turn out the best dental work at moderate cost.
